New product innovation

Inpatient Electronic Medical Record (iEMR)

Identified a gap for private/independent hospitals to digitise their patient records, this integrates with existing Patient Administration systems (PAS). The solution is being co-designed with clients and delivery of modules starts late 2022.

Inpatient EMR offers:-

- A roadmap to complete digitisation
- Supports HL7, FHIR and interoperability
- Feature rich, web-based patient management ~ monitor in-patient stays

Many of our clients have already expressed interest in this new solution.

Overseas Market Development

- Appointment of Martin Murnaghan as a Non-Executive Director to drive overseas market development
- Appointment of Regional CEO Robin Armstrong to drive and develop ASEAN opportunities
- Focus on expanding B2B partnerships and client growth as well as facilitate Global Health's expansion into these key strategic markets
- Drive subscription revenue from the Global Health community portfolio of patient-centric SaaS platforms which provide a rich set of digital engagement tools and secure connectivity for clinicians and consumers

Moving Forward

Our growth

- Strong balance sheet and a positive pipeline of opportunity.
- Deals were slow to sign in FY21-22 ~ federal election and budget constraints. Decision-making timings returning to normal.
- In home care capabilities position us well to capitalise on this rapidly emerging demand in healthcare.
- More sales resource; integrated cross-sell activity, and an uplift in brand activities to drive top of funnel.
- Delivered a new MasterCare website to improve conversion. Master-Care.com.au

Outcome of recent contract wins

- Contracted Annual Recurring Revenue (CARR) lifted over $800k since April 2022
- Contracted Professional services revenue lifted over $1,300,000 since 1 April 2022.
